

Watercrest of Lake Nona Congratulates the Winners of “Best Mom in the World” Student Essay Competition

VERO BEACH, Fla, June 9, 2016 – The residents and associates of Watercrest of Lake Nona Assisted Living and Memory Care Community thank each of the Northlake Park Elementary School students who participated in the “Best Mom in the World” writing competition last month. In conjunction with Mother’s Day, Watercrest of Lake Nona hosted a challenge for each student to honor and recognize their mothers for the wonderful things they do each and every day. Over 100 students from first to fifth grade entered the competition to describe their favorite attributes and moments with their mothers.

The residents of Watercrest of Lake Nona carefully reviewed each submission and a winner was chosen in each grade level. Winners include Shannon McInerney, Juhi Shah, Malak Al-khaled, Anna Penner and Brooke Myre. The students described their mother’s as “kind, inspirational, a good listener” and thanked them for “reading books, playing board games, taking care of the family and always supporting them in tough times.” Each student’s essay included a lovely color illustration of themselves with their mothers.

Watercrest partners with Northlake Park Elementary as part of their common unity initiative, a commitment to serving others and fulfilling needs in our hometowns through the Watercrest Common Unity program.

“We encourage every opportunity to connect residents with our community youth, enriching all of their lives with a meaningful bond between generations” says Marc Vorkapich, Principal and CEO of Watercrest Senior Living Group.

Jenny Phillips, Executive Director of Watercrest of Lake Nona, sits on the Northlake Park School Advisory Council, composed of staff, parents, and community members whose collective goal is to improve student achievement and facilitate the development of a supportive climate at the school.

“It’s so fulfilling to see our residents delight when given a purpose and opportunity to engage in community activities, especially involving the enrichment of our youth,” says Phillips.

An “A-rated” school serving over 800 students from pre-kindergarten to fifth grade, the award-winning Northlake Park Community School is located in the northernmost section of Lake Nona, a 7,000-acre master-designed community in East Orlando.
