

Watercrest of Lake Nona School Supply Drive Benefits Northlake Park Community School

VERO BEACH, FL, September 22, 2015 – The team of associates at Watercrest of Lake Nona express their sincere gratitude to the community members who supported the August School Supply Drive benefitting the teachers and students of nearby Northlake Park Community School in Lake Nona. Over 380 school supply items were collected and delivered to the grateful staff and students for the start of the 2015-16 school year.

Watercrest chose to partner with Northlake Park as part of their common unity initiative, a commitment to serving others and fulfilling needs in our hometowns through the Watercrest Common Unity program. “We are focused on cultivating relationships in the rapidly expanding community of Lake Nona and strengthening our local involvement to make an impactful presence which benefits our residents, staff and neighbors in the community,” says Marc Vorkapich, Principal and CEO of Watercrest Senior Living Group.

An “A-rated” school serving over 800 students from pre-kindergarten to fifth grade, the award-winning Northlake Park Community School is located in the northernmost section of Lake Nona, a 7,000-acre master-designed community in East Orlando. As a result of Watercrest’s community outreach, Jenny Phillips, Executive Director of Watercrest of Lake Nona, has been invited to join the Northlake Park School Advisory Council, composed of staff, parents, and community members whose collective goal is to improve student achievement and facilitate the development of a supportive climate at the school.

“We are so thankful to the individuals who supported this initiative benefitting our local students and minimizing expenses for their teachers,” says Jenny Phillips, Executive Director of Watercrest of Lake Nona. “It’s an honor to join the School Advisory Council and positively impact the progress of the school as a whole.”
