

Watercrest St. Lucie West Sponsors the Senior Networking of the Treasure Coast's Caring from the Heart Award

VERO BEACH, Fla., January 26, 2018 – Watercrest St. Lucie West Assisted Living and Memory Care proudly announces their sponsorship of the Senior Networking of the Treasure Coast's "Caring from the Heart" Award. The award will be presented every other month at the Senior Networking Breakfast to a community member who has demonstrated an act of kindness and goodwill, above and beyond their job description and performance.

This month, Pat Sacco, Senior Networking of the Treasure Coast Administrator, and Diann McDonough, Community Relations Director of Watercrest St. Lucie West, presented the first award to Christine Rigg for her outstanding dedication to the senior community.

Rigg serves as Administrator of Elder Care Home Services and earned the "Caring from the Heart" award for her volunteer service as the Treasure Coast Walk Chairperson. Under Rigg's leadership, the Walk was the only one in their district to exceed their financial goal, benefiting the Alzheimer's Association. Additionally, Rigg's volunteered as an aide during Hurricane Irma, staying at a short-staffed nursing home to assist residents.

"It is an honor to name Christine as the first recipient of the Senior Networking 'Caring from the Heart' award, she truly deserves this recognition for going above and beyond to help the community," stated Pat Sacco, Administrator, Senior Networking of the Treasure Coast.
