Introducing . . . Chef Mike Young Executive Chef, Watercrest Macon

We are proud to introduce Executive Chef Mike Young at Watercrest Macon!

Mike draws from a wide well of inspiration. His passion for food was ignited early in life, working at his family restaurant. . . . During his twenties, he was a nomadic chef, traveling all over the United States and southeast Asia, including two years in Thailand.

Mike then returned to the United States and spent four years in New Orleans, studying under some of the top chefs in the industry. He is now proud to call Macon, Georgia his home and aims to create exceptional culinary experiences for residents, family and guests at Watercrest Macon.

We're blessed to welcome Chef Mike to our Watercrest family!
